About Lynn University

Located in Boca Raton, Lynn University is a private, coeducational university awarding bachelor's and master's degrees. Founded in 1962 and accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, Lynn stresses individualized learning, innovative approaches and an international focus among its students and faculty.

The university currently enrolls more than 2,500 students representing nearly every state and 80 nations.

In addition to its colleges of business, international communication, arts and sciences, hospitality management and education, the university houses specialty programs including the Conservatory of Music, School of Aeronautics and the Institute for Achievement and Learning, which is an international pioneer in developing successful teaching strategies for students with learning differences.

Kevin M. Ross was named Lynn University's fifth president in July 2006. For more information on Lynn, visit www.lynn.edu.

The Conservatory of Music at Lynn University

One of the leading conservatories within a university environment, the Lynn Conservatory admits a highly select group of gifted musicians from around the world to pursue rigorous solo, chamber and orchestral training, as well as a carefully crafted academic program of study that leads to the Bachelor of Music Performance, Bachelor of Arts, Master of Music or Professional Performance Certificate.

Our distinguished faculty brings a wealth of experience and expertise to our students, who consistently earn the highest honors at international competitions and join leading orchestras and prominent faculties around the globe.

Albert-George Schram, music director and conductor

A native of the Netherlands, Schram is resident conductor of the Columbus Symphony Orchestra and of the Nashville Symphony in Tennessee. He has enjoyed an international conducting career, including engagements in Korea, Switzerland and the Netherlands. His guest conducting appearances have included the former Florida Philharmonic, Dallas Symphony Orchestra, Tucson Symphony, Oklahoma City Philharmonic, Spokane Symphony, Louisville Orchestra, Dayton Philharmonic, Charlotte Symphony, Nashville Symphony, Shreveport Symphony, San Antonio Symphony, Ballet Metropolitan and the Akron University Opera.

Schram's studies have been largely in the European tradition under the tutelage of Franco Ferrara, Rafael Kubelik, Abraham Kaplan and Neeme Järvi. He has studied at the Conservatory of The Hague in the Netherlands, the universities of Calgary and Victoria, and the University of Washington, where he received the Doctor of Musical Arts degree.
